Dolphins are recognized as the sea's most intelligent creatures. Scientists believe these ocean mammals communicate with one another through the sounds they emit. National Geographic Dolphins 2015 will make a splash with anyone who is fascinated by ocean life. These gentle, smiling creatures are a joy to encounter 365 days a year. Several dolphin species are featured: Long-snouted spinner; Bottlenose; Dusky; Pantropical spotted; Atlantic spotted. Each outstanding image is accompanied by fascinating National Geographic information and a large grid with moon phases and international holidays. Proceeds from the sale of this calendar support vital exploration, conservation, research, and education programs. Earth friendly:, printed with soya-based inks on FSC certified paper.
