Expose (Crash) (Volume 3) Drew Jordan

I am the hunter. She is the prey. The first time I saw Laney I thought she was dead in the wreckage of that plane crash. She was still and pale, her hair tumbled around her face as she slumped slightly to the side. Like a perfect porcelain doll on a little chair, and I thought it was a waste of such a beautiful face. But then her eyes popped open and they were filled with pain and fear. I knew that look. It was the look of every animal that has been hunted and hasn't died yet. She was the fox with her leg in the trap, and I freed her from the seat crushing her foot, picked her up and took her home. No one can trap her but me, her captor, but danger is coming. I need to plan very carefully how to save Laney's sexy little ass and keep her all to myself. She thinks she is love with me, and maybe she is. I hope she is. Because I love her too, even if I have a strange way of showing it... All his secrets are exposed as he and Laney's erotic relationship reaches its climax in the Alaskan tundra.
