We all have horse stories to share, to laugh about, and that make us cry. This book will give you insight and information from five women who met through their love of horses. You Bought Your First Horse, Now What? will help you find your way through the trials and tribulations of first time horse ownership. We hope you'll laugh with us while you learn something along the way.

"The authors have done a great job of sharing their passion for horses and presenting relevant information. First time horse owners will benefit from the book's practical tips without feeling overwhelmed. Readers will be able to relate to each of the authors as they share their own experiences and development of their horsemanship."

—Chad R. Coppess - Founder of Cross Training Horsemanship

"In today's world, there are two groups of people, who for many reasons, need to connect with a horse... The learning and sharing of experiences are the only way... [to] experience a little something of what horses can do for the inside of a person. This book can take you along that journey."

—Danny Cook and Gary Wells Founders of Animal 360
