The Official Miami Book (Visually Speaking)

With over 200 spectacular large-format professional photographs, this luxury coffee table book captures the essence of the sexiest city in the U.S.--Miami. From the breathtaking landscapes, fascinating aerial views, urban details, miles of beaches and colorful skies the city is famous for, this artful book perfectly captures the true experience of this tropical paradise. Miami - Visually Speaking by Kiko Ricote This lavish coffee table book contains 200 pages of full-color photographs that convey the visual richness of Miami, Florida, and its tropical urban surroundings. "This book is my love letter to Miami," says Venezuelan-born photographer Kiko Ricote. "The city and surrounding areas contain immense visual richness that I take pleasure in sharing with others." Text is nonexistent in this wittily-organized collection of photographs that reveal the many facets of Miami's natural and built environments as they appeared at the close of 2011. "My goal with the book is to show that this beautiful city is worthy of admiration from all," says Kiko, who previously published a coffee table book Key Biscayne - Island Paradise. He lives in Key Biscayne, Florida, with his wife and three daughters.
