My First Trip to the Aquarium (My First Adventures) Katie Kawa

Beginning readers take an exciting and educational look at sea creatures using a fictionalized approach. Readers will follow along as one family visits an aquarium and discovers the incredible marine life that is waiting to be seen inside. Through the use of accessible text and a helpful picture glossary, early learners are introduced to the world of animals such as turtles, dolphins, and blue crabs. Vibrant illustrations give readers the incredible experience of seeing these amazing animals up close.
