Our Engagement Journal

Our Engagement Journal

Our Engagement Journal* has been specially created for anyone who has just announced their engagement.

On every page, insightful questions encourage you to document the story of your relationship, including all the important milestones, from your first encounter through to meeting each other's families, the actual proposal, your wedding plans, and the early days of married life. There are also sections that encourage reflection upon more private issues—how you feel about each other, your different outlooks on life, and your hopes for your joint future. Over the course of a few months, you will create a personalized and very special portrait of your engagement, your partner, and yourself—full of magical memories, and a wonderful keepsake for the future.
