Pesso System/Psychotherapy (PS/P) integrates the mind, the "psyche," fueled by the body, the "motor," into a comprehensive, flexible, and subtle system for accomplishing emotional re-education and growth. Structures, episodes of therapeutic work that involve the client and role-playing figures, which take place in a controlled setting with carefully designed exercises, are used to resolve past conflicts, satisfy previously unmet needs, heal past emotional injuries, and enable hitherto unborn parts of the self to emerge and become integrated into the being and functioning of the person.
