This book is the summary of a workshop has been presented to kingdom/church administrators regarding the importance of their role to their pastors, leaders and the body of Christ. This position is more than a job, it is a calling. The book outlines seven components for success in this role. Whether the reader is a volunteer administrator or full-time staffer this book illustrates the critical importance of administration in churches, ministries and non-profit organizations. This book explains why this role is not only a position for the clerical superstars, but also for those who have a heart for service and compassion for the people of God. Lastly, the book shows the role that every administrator has in assisting their leaders and pastors in birthing the leader's vision and achieving their kingdom objectives.
