With Bible verses like “The love of money is the root of all evil” (1 Tim 6:10) and “It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God” (Mark 10:25), it seems, at first glance, that God does not want Christians to have money. But by paying attention to the positive aspects of wealth, and the responsibility that comes with it, you can feel empowered to grow rich, and do immeasurable amounts of good with it.

The purpose of this book is to highlight the positive aspect of wealth, both as a tool and as a reward, and includes examples of rich people in the Bible, verses discussing wealth, poverty, and good work, as well as quotes by popular religious teachers.

This book is a list of over 70 Bible verses and useful quotes that will encourage you and prepare you for the reward of God’s blessings.
