Caged Sparrow Mr. Joseph A. Tuttolomondo, Mrs. Rosemarie Fitzsimmons

Standing before the steel gates of Attica Prison, Joe Tutt is sure of only one thing: if he goes in alone, he'll never make it out alive. The true story of hardened undercover narcotics chief, Joseph Tuttolomondo, who finds himself on the wrong end of the law, facing a 7-year prison sentence for a crime he did not commit. While awaiting trial, Tutt resolves to exact revenge on the man who set him up. He hikes down a country lane to plot the perfect murder, but a surprise encounter changes everything he knows about himself, his life, and his future. As a convicted felon in the world's eyes, Tutt enters New York's prison system alongside many of the men he put behind bars. Knowing he cannot rely on the prison guards to protect him there, or even on his own police training, Tutt must place all his trust in an unlikely ally. ...Can he count on someone he has only just met?
