General Psychology with Spotlights on Diversity (3rd Edition) Josh R. Gerow

General Psychology with Spotlights on Diversity offers students and teachers more features than any other introductory psychology text, at an affordable price for students.

The text includes proven pedagogical features to enhance student learning and offers a host of instructor resource materials to make teaching as easy as possible. In addition, this exciting new text takes a fresh look at matters of diversity by spotlighting topics such as:

- Early days of psychology
- Gender differences in self-esteem and locus of control
- Gender, Race and Prejudice
- Male and female brains
- Parenting styles
- Psychotherapy and minority groups
- Race/gender and psychological disorders
- Racial and ethnic differences in IQ
- Racial/ethnic disparities in healthcare
- Sexual orientation

All this is delivered in an exciting, four-color text, featuring updated photos, colorful anatomical art, and new author input. Plus in this new edition you'll find a re-designed layout, a completely new Instructor's Manual, a Student Study Guide, and a computerized Test Bank.
