Two Grannies in a Garage: How Hard-Headed Perserverance Trumped Scrapbooking Beverly Vines-Haines

Common sense details on building a multi-million dollar business. When two grandmothers set out to help their tile-setter husbands get off their knees, the product they formulate becomes an international sensation. In spite of a challenged economy and being women of a certain age, these grannies go to the drawing boards and learn the secrets of searching out bulk supplies, setting up production and marketing a new product in all fifty states. It is a good thing they never stopped to read the books that said this couldn't be done. Today Ice Chips Candy can be found all over America and in many other countries. If you are a struggling entrepreneur this is the book for you.
