Excerpt from A Centenary of Catholicity in Kansas, 1822-1922: The History of Our Cradle Land (Miami and Linn Counties); Catholic Indian Missions and Missionaries of Kansas; The Pioneers on the Prairies

Reverend and Dear Father:

I have been unable to answer your letter until now; kindly pardon the delay.

As I wrote to Father Cogley, your history of pioneer Catholicity in Miami and Linn Counties, is extremely interesting and will be a valuable contribution to the story of the upbuilding of the Church in Kansas. I am sure that everybody will be pleased when they see this chapter of Western ecclesiastical history in print.

Your record of the labors of the first Jesuit missionaries in Kansas is accurate and in keeping with the facts.

I regret to inform you that to my knowledge no portrait or photograph of Father C. Hoecken is extant. The picture at Marquette University of which Father Harvey speaks in his letter is, no doubt, a picture of Father Adrian Hoecken, brother of Father Christian H.

In conclusion, dear Father, let me congratulate you on the zeal you manifest in gathering up and preserving for the edification of posterity the rather meager data that survive concerning the pioneers of the Faith in Kansas. It is a noble work in which you are engaged - and I pray that heaven may prosper your labors more and more.
