Love demands you surrender all... Niccolo Darian is a man in conflict. Married for six years to a woman he neither loved nor wanted, and at the same time, friend to a woman he wants like no other. The tenacious grip he holds on his integrity and honor is constantly being tested. Finding his wife in bed with another man should have been painful, but all he can think about is how soon he could claim the woman of his desire. Mari Quinn knows it is wrong, but she has been in love with her married boss for years. Accepting that he is beyond her reach, she settles for being his friend and confidant. Respecting his commitment, and certainly admiring it, she is determined not to do anything to compromise his relationship with his wife. But her resolve shatters in one night. In an effort to console Niccolo, Mari gives him more than a shoulder to lean on. Months later, the consequence of that night irrevocably changed their lives.
