Special Purpose Gavin Smith

At the height of the Cold War, a Russian special forces team target New York with a horrifying new virus.

Vadim Scrolenski is the sergeant in charge of an elite Spetznaz squad at the height of the Cold War. Sent by the Politburo on a training exercise to the Eastern Seaboard of the United States, Scrolenski and his men discover too late that the practice 'weapon' they're carrying – an exotic chemical agent – is all too real. Betrayed by their allies and cut down by the American police, they go to their deaths...

...and awaken to a scene of turmoil. New York City has been overwhelmed by a horde of the walking dead, a plague that even now is spreading across the globe. Somehow holding onto their identities where all others have become mindless monsters, Scrolenski and his squad set out to return to Russia, to take revenge for what has been done to them.
