About the Book: "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" was the question Nathaniel asked when Philip told him about Jesus. For the uninitiated to God's agenda, the same might be said of those sixteen acres, five miles east of Zachary, Louisiana. But the ways of God are not discerned by natural man, and what might look like nothing more than ground and buildings is recorded in the annals of heaven as an address God has chosen to visit over the years--a "place of meeting" for thousands of hungry, thirsty souls!

About the Author: RON OWENS--son of both Canada and Switzerland, has multifaceted ministries that include teaching, preaching, and music. He has authored other books and has composed, recorded, and published many songs and several music dramas in collaboration with his wife, Patricia. The Owenses have one son, Jeff; a daughter-in-law, Jessica; and two grandsons, Ethan and Evan.
