Georgian bounty hunter Coswell Tims lives with his wife Cynthia and a kennel of well-trained and trusty bloodhounds. Returning home one day, he finds his home ransacked, his dogs killed, his loyal house servant brutally beaten and his woman, the true love of his life, is kidnapped. Coswell must now employ all his skills and experience to track down the perpetrator and rescue Cynthia. Expertly researched and vividly written this historical novel (with its memorable cast of characters, intriguing twists and turns, and unencumbered portrayals of life during the pre-civil war south) invites the reader to venture upon an unforgettable, enlightening journey into one of the most controversial periods of our history.
