Baja Outpost: The Guest Book from Patchen's Cabin (Sunbelt Cultural Heritage Books) Marvin Patchen

This charming book is comprised of excerpts from the guest book at Marvin and Aletha Patchen's tiny cabin in the Cataviña desert area of central Baja California. Visited by Baja old-timers and newcomers alike, the remote cabin has been the site of many a weary traveler's respite and more than a few serendipitous meetings over the years.

These unvarnished and eclectic entries take readers on a vicarious tour of the diverse Baja California peninsula. Some guests relate their experiences hiking, bicycling, kayaking, and whale watching; others write of their wonder at seeing the nearby cave paintings and petroglyphs or spotting the unusual birds and plants of this largely undeveloped region.

The authors have stitched this patchwork quilt of adventure together with selected reminiscences of the friends and friends-of-friends who have come to visit. The recurring theme of both hosts and guests is of communing with this spectacular and inspiring land of desert, mountains, and sea.
