Proslavery and Sectional Thought in the Early South, 1740-1829: An Anthology

In Proslavery and Sectional Thought in the Early South, 1740-1829, Jeffrey Robert Young has assembled thirteen texts that reveal the development of proslavery perspectives across the colonial and early national South, from Maryland to Georgia. The tracts, lectures, sermons, and petitions in this volume demonstrate that defenses of human bondage had a history in southern thought that long predated the later antebellum era traditionally associated with the genesis of such positive defenses of slavery. Previous anthologies, notably Drew Gilpin Faust's The Ideology of Slavery, have made the antebellum perspectives of slavery's defenders widely available to scholars and students, but earlier proslavery thinkers have remained largely inaccessible to modern readers.
