The ties that bind us -- to each other, to our earth, and to the creatures we share it with -- is the subject of Songs for a Beloved Friend. This volume of philosophy and ecology in the form of poetry is serious, funny, and quirky, often at the same time. These poems and essays celebrate nature -- human and wild. Topics include Yellowstone and our national parks, animals, dogs, the spheres of the universe, and the human place among them.

exploring the spheres, the wilds of nature and the human heart -- in verse
