Winging It: Goldwing Touring Experiences William Spicer, Marguerite Spicer

Winging It is a detailed narrative covering the experiences of a couple who started touring the country on a Honda Goldwing motorcycle in their forties and are still at it twenty years later. As they share their adventures and lessons learned, the book provides an excellent venue for the reader to duplicate the rides by following the routes in the various chapters. For those readers thinking about motorcycle touring, it is an excellent how-to book on getting started and progressing to much longer rides. Last but not least, for the non-rider it provides the opportunity to enjoy their adventures vicariously with a sense of what it's like to Wing It.
