The Marriage of Temperance: Temperance and the Marshal (Courting Temperance) Susan Leigh Carlton

In book one of the Courting Temperance series, orphaned since birth, and raised in an orphanage, U.S. Marshal Cody Duncan married orphaned Temperance Boozer. After the marriage good things happened to them, one after the other and they are happy together and feeling blessed... until the day she asked him for help in controlling her thirteen year old sister, Patience, who had begun acting out.

He talked to Patience with little success, so he devised an alternate plan. It worked, but he would not share with Temperance what he did.

When Temperance finally learns the details, she is infuriated, and orders him from their home, and telling him she is afraid of him.

After he is gravely wounded during an attempt to capture a gang of bank robbers, she realizes how deeply she cares.

Will he forgive her and return to their home, or is the marriage doomed?
