Moment of Torment: An Interpretation of Franz Kafka's Short Stories (A Chicago Classic) Ruth Tiefenbrun

Kafka scholars will find Ruth Tiefenbrun's remarkably original thesis provocative and perhaps even controversial, but they will not be able to ignore it. It could well invalidate much previous Kafka criticism.

A student of modern literature, and trained in psychology, Ruth Tiefenbrun provides a new reading based on a unique psychological interpretation of Kafka as a homosexual whose works constitute an autobiographical confession. Her book "decodes" Kafka's secret words for his condition and thus provides a rationale for hitherto unexplained predicaments in which Kafka's major protagonists, both human and animal, find themselves.

Well researched and brilliantly argued, this highly original work makes a significant contribution to modern psychological studies of literature.
