There is no other element found in nature that has given so much, been so venerated and yet at the same time, so distrusted as that of the Cannabis plant. And like its species cousin, hemp, cannabis is a plant that has been at the center of civilization for thousands of years and only since the past century, given way to crime, corruption, corporate greed and unjust state law. Yet from this plant there are those of us that have seen the light and how we, as a civilization, can break free from the confines of a subjugated existence and truly awaken into a new dawn. Cannabis isn't about getting high, nor is this natural gift a gateway for abuse, but abuse of power; cannabis has had an effect on the human condition and it's long since been denied from us, the inborn traits we have once lost.
