The Unknown God: A Look At The Apostle Paul's Transit In Athens Dr Monica E Dennis-Hawthorne

On this journey you will explore the Athens, Apostle Paul visited in Acts chapter 17. The Author provides in-depth information on; - The Athenian people and culture - Activities of their daily Market place - The Philosophers of that time - The gods and goddesses they worshiped - The Altar to "The Unknown God" - Paul's grand opportunity at the Areopagus - How Paul made this God, "Yahweh" known Do you know this God, Paul declared to the Athenians? Are you adequately equipped to present him to those who don't know him? Would you be willing, like Paul to use your time to inform and educate others about Yahweh, the true and living God? These writings show how Paul used the Athenians' culture, coupled with their belief of a need to worship, to present Yahweh to them. The results are astounding! Paul made a difference in a city filled with philosophers, so can you! A Must Read!
