Nearly thirty years ago, in a tiny, impoverished Ghanaian village, a young boy dreamed of becoming a professional soccer player and competing against European powerhouse Manchester United. Despite being told that he wasn't good enough to become a professional soccer player, his dream was realized after being drafted by Seattle Sounders FC and competing against Manchester United, in front of 67,000 fans. At twenty-three years old, Michael Tetteh had realized his childhood dream.

Then late one night, an encounter caused him to give up the single thing that had defined his entire life?soccer. In one moment, he surrendered to a new vision and stepped into the unknown. Was he crazy?or brave?
