The Legend of Crawley Creek Mark A. Wilson

The Legend of Crawley Creek A strange fog transports two young brothers back in time to a mysterious world where time seems to stand still. This unfamiliar land has green skies and starless nights but, as Brian and Luke escape from ruthless cowboys, fight blood thirsty conquistadors, and battle prehistoric beasts, it's clear this is no paradise. The boys escape death time after time, but their luck is running out. And their only hope of getting home rests with a man from the future...with whom they have an unusual connection. Filled with adventure, mystery and twist after turning twist, The Legend of Crawley Creek keeps readers guessing as they turn the pages... Mark A. Wilson began writing when his young sons were bored with fairy tales. Instead, he made up exciting and scary tales to share with them. Mark wrote this story, The Legend of Crawley Creek, 20 years ago for his children, but recently polished it up and added some new characters. He and his wife, Brenda Kay, reside in Neillsville, Wisconsin.
