This unique guide to Rosslyn Chapel just south of Edinburgh in Scotland acquaints the visitor well to the deeper meanings portrayed by the intricate carvings the chapel contains. Based on several years guiding visitors round the chapel before popular interest intensified, the author was the first external guide to Rosslyn. There is explicit information on several aspects of the chapel's carvings and architectural layout, including the Reshe, which is a vast body of sacred knowledge known by ancient cultures and utilized here by an inner core of Knights Templar. The Reshel is a dynamic system still active today. The author hopes to deepen your perspective on the spiritual role of Rosslyn. The exquisite hand drawings are by a retired architect and academic, Andrew Gilmour has greatly enhanced the guide through his generous efforts.
