Crossroads J P Hines II

The lives of three families would be forever changed the day they all collided at the Cherry Corners crossroads. But would one find the redemption he seeks for a wasted life? Would another find a way to save a way of life threatened by a forbidden act of selfishness? And could one find in his heart the strength to forgive an egregious injury to himself and his family? Little did they know they would confront a second crossroads, one that would determine the direction of a life.
