Discipleship Focused Youth Ministry: A Getting Started Guide for Parishes Eric Gallagher

With over 40 years of combined youth ministry experience, Jim and Eric offer an approach to youth ministry that seeks to deepen the impact that youth ministry has in the church through discipleship. The book lays a foundation of understanding on what youth ministry is (or should be!), provides insights into many of the shifts happening in the Church, especially looking at the work of discipleship and the fruit it is bearing across the country, as well as providing a five step plan that parishes can use to begin shifting their youth ministry efforts to be more discipleship focused. More resources and information about the book and Discipleship Focused Youth Ministry can be found at DiscipleshipYM.com.
