Steam in the Redwoods Lynwood Carranco, Henry L. Sorensen

Fascinating and detailed look at over 25 narrow gauge logging railroads that once ran through the redwood forest of northern California. The text brings the logging camps, the screech of the sawmills and vitality of the industry back to life. Illustrated throughout with vintage black and white photos of the trains as well as the camps and scenery around them. With rosters of the steam locomotives (by company) and maps. Includes bibliography. 224 pages.
